

Blue Hills Lavender Farm
2361 - 50 Street NE,
Salmon Arm
FRIENDSHIP BOUQUET -
The property was owned by the same family for over 50 years and recently purchased by Blue Hills Lavender. The barn in which the quilt hangs houses their goats, and "Mr.Big" the donkey. The loft in the barn is for drying the lavender.

Honey Berry Flats
162 Grindrod-Westside Road,
Grindrod
HARVEST WREATH -
One of our newest barn quilts! This quilt is especially unique as it was painted "free hand" by the farm owner. The farm has nurtured families as a tree farm, a potato farm, and a dairy farm. It is now an orchard of haskap berries and crab apples.

Wild Oak Café & Community Market
2539 Pleasant Valley Blvd.,
Armstrong
SUN OVER COFFEE MOUNTAIN -
The building which is home to the beautiful Sun Over Coffee Mountain quilt has been home to many businesses in Armstrong over the years.
It is now the popular spot named "Wild Oak Café" with the best coffee, treats and atmosphere around.

St. James Anglican Church
2315 Patterson Avenue,
Armstrong
FLYING GEESE CROSS -
The parish was established over 100 years ago to worship God and serve others as part of the Anglican diocese of Kootenay. The Church building was originally located in the village of Lansdowne and moved to the community of Armstrong in 1892.

Shepherd's Home Hardware Ltd.
3525 Mill Street,
Armstrong
PINWHEEL PINE -
Since 1925 Shepherd's has been providing great service to Armstrong, Spallumcheen and the Okanagan Valley.
They take great pride in our community and are happy to host one of our large blocks!

The Village Cheese Co.
3475 Smith Drive,
Armstrong
CHURN DASH -
This building was once the Crane's Drive-In and was a local hangout.
Now, artisan cheese is produced here, made from whole milk from the Okanagan Valley.

Township of Spallumcheen
4144 Spallumcheen Way
Spallumcheen
CANADA 150 MAPLE LEAF - Farming comes first. The oldest and largest township in BC's southern interior. Incorporated in 1892. The building where the quilt is located is Spallumcheen's municipal office.

NORTH OKANAGAN SHUSWAP
Barn Quilt
TRAIL
... On roads less travelled 250.546.8155

WWW.ASCHAMBER.COM

f t i p

HITT HOUSE & BARN

Armstrong Senior's Activity Centre
2520 Patterson Avenue

FRIENDSHIP LINKS -

A place and space to meet, mingle, learn and stay active for those who are 50 plus. The friendship links block represent relationships.

Armstrong Spallumcheen Chamber of Commerce & Visitor Centre, 3550 Bridge Street

FLYING GEESE -

This building was originally the library and was built in 1959, a new addition was built in 1980. The Chamber of Commerce and Visitor Centre is an active, collaborative Chamber which supports the local Armstrong and Spallumcheen business network and provides visitor services to travellers.

Armstrong Spallumcheen Museum & Art Gallery
3415 Pleasant Valley Rd

SWOON BLOCK - SUNFLOWER

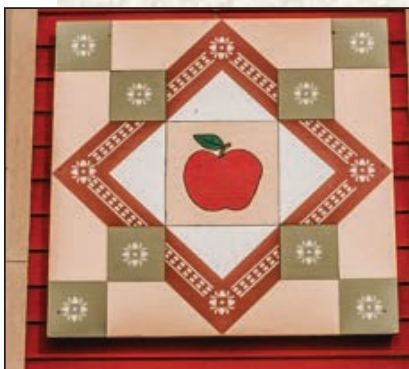

A historic building which has undergone many transformations including a blacksmith, machine shop, storage facility, automobile garage, gas station and now a museum, art gallery and home to Armstrong archives.

Armstrong Pumpkin Patch
642 St. Annes Road

AUTUMN HARVEST -

This farm has been in the same family for approximately sixty years. Originally asparagus was grown here, but after losing the asparagus to disease thirty years ago, the pumpkin patch began and is still growing.

Davison Orchards
3111 Davison Road, Vernon

APPLE CIDER -

Sustainably farming in Vernon since 1933: farm to table fresh, local, in-season produce.

Fair Hill Farm
4365 Round Prairie Road, Armstrong

FARMER'S STAR -

In 1916 the property of 59 acres was bought by the Horn family. In 1945 lots were divided up. The Bosomworth's bought property in 1952. It is now owned by the Crich family, and this quilt is our largest yet!

Farmer John's Market
15 Grandview Bench Road, Grindrod

MAPLE LEAVES -

Authentic farmers' market with fabulous locally produced goods, including unique crafts, artisan cheese, baked goods, preserves, local fruits and veggies, pasture raised lamb and pork, and backyard chickens! SPCA certified. This building was newly built and opened in 2017.

Felmark Farm
5045 Schubert Road, Armstrong

FARMER'S DAUGHTER -

The Felmark Farm came to life in the year 1982! This barn quilt is a favourite with the rich colours on the bright red barn!

Fieldstone Organics
4851 Schubert Road, Armstrong

TRADITION BASKET -

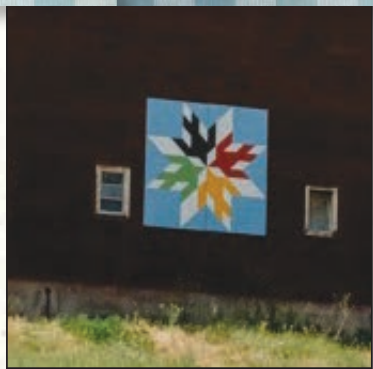

George Paton was a Scot who came to Spallumcheen in the late 1880's. He acquired 320 acres and established a grain and cattle business. The small log house on this property was the original homestead. The large farm house was built in 1908 and has been extensively restored. The barn is used as an organic milling facility.

Frost Farm
4851 Schubert Road, Armstrong

FLYFOOT BLOCK -

Wayne and Alberta Frost purchased this 10 acre farm in 1969. The farm was named Frostyvale Percherons and stock was purchased from Canada and the USA. From here a successful breeding program was begun and they showed their prize horses throughout western Canada. Many memories were made on this farm.

Hitt House & Barn
4537 Hullcar Road, Armstrong

DOVE IN THE WINDOW -

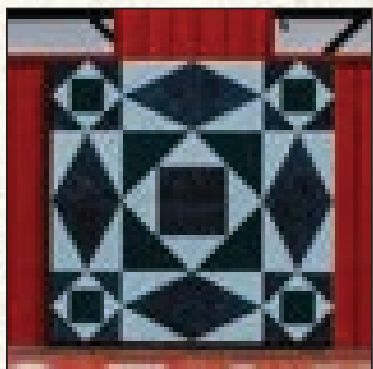

Fredrick Charles Hitt came to Armstrong in 1913 and farmed at Hullcar. It was not until 1930 that he purchased 60 acres of land and built the house. He later cleared 42 of those acres himself.

Hullcar Hall
4194 Hullcar Road

FRIENDSHIP CIRCLE -

This well-known simple frame building was built in 1909 by community members. This landmark is one of very few community buildings ever built in Spallumcheen. In 1968 community members met to rescue the old hall and by 1980 the Hullcar/Deep Creek Society was formed to renovate the building.

IPE Fairgrounds
3371 Pleasant Valley Road, Armstrong

STORM AT SEA -

The Armstrong Interior Provincial Exhibition is one of the largest agricultural fairs in western Canada. Started in 1899, the farmers had an opportunity to show their livestock and produce, branching out each year to a bigger event. The red grandstand was built in 1960, one of the newer buildings on the IPE property.

Mooney House
1060 Corkscrew Road, Armstrong

SWOON BLOCK -

In 1904, an Armstrong resident by the name George Payne owned 160 acres of the property where the barn quilt is placed today. Throughout the years, the land has been broken up and sold to different families. The property is now owned by the Mooney family.

Odd Fellows Hall
3005 Wood Avenue, Armstrong

SUSPENDER SAM & SUNBONNET SUE -

This building has many tales to tell within our little town. The hall was built by the Forresters and used as a church. It then became a library; a home economics and industrial arts building for the high school; the school board office and is now known as the Odd Fellows Hall.

O'Keefe Ranch
9380 Highway 97, Vernon

TRIPLE STAR -

Founded in 1867, O'Keefe Ranch was the end of the wagon road into the Okanagan Valley and the site of the stage coach depot. This heritage site now shares the local history by telling the story of early ranching in BC.

Red Caboose
Smith Drive & Smith Road

DOGWOOD -

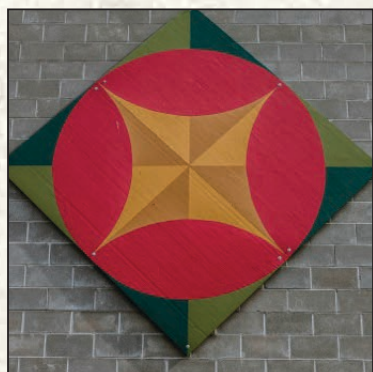

The caboose is a classic attraction in Armstrong. It is a restored CN Caboose, built in 1943 and it once served as the Armstrong Visitor Centre.

Reimer Farm
4544 Salmon River Road, Armstrong

BEAR PAW -

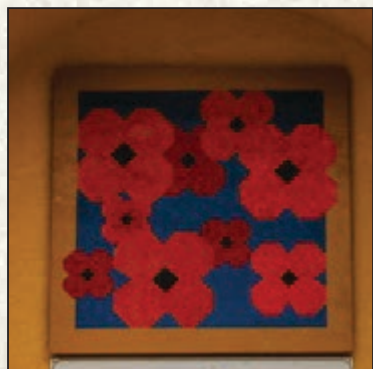

One of the "newer" barns in town, built in 2000 on a large acreage. This large barn is beautifully accented by the red and white barn quilt.

Rogers Foods
4420 Larkin X Road, Armstrong

CRIST MILL -

This original "stone mill" opened in 1951 and was known as A.J. Rogers Wholesome Foods. The name was later changed to Rogers Foods. Quality flour and cereal products are milled here with Canadian grain from BC and AB farmers. (Nothing beats baking with fresh flour!)

Royal Canadian Legion
Branch #35
2526 Pleasant Valley Blvd. Armstrong

POPPY WREATH -

The Legion is a non-profit Canadian service organization serving veterans, ex-service personnel, seniors, youth, and many aspects of community life. The Legion was founded in 1925 to support WWI veterans. This branch has been at this location since 1994.