

Experts on Tap

Mandi Lunan has been advising food based business owners in North America since 2016. As well as being a business coach, she has over a decade of real life distribution and small business ownership under her apron, having owned a speciality baked goods company and incorporates her experiences into her engaging, practical and informative webinars.

Mandi is renowned for her empathy, humor, and real life approach to the culinary business world.

You can read more about her at foodbusinesscoach.com